

Doctor's Brief Curriculum Vitae

Name and Title:

Periklis- Iosif Chrysocheris

GENERAL SURGEON

Director 1st Surgical Department HYGEIA HOSPITAL

Specialty:

GENERAL SURGEON

Education:

American Board of Surgery Certified

TRAINING

- General Surgery Residency : Boston University Medical Center (2008)
- Fellowship, Department of Surgery, Massachusetts General Hospital (MGH), Harvard Medical School (2009)
- Liscenced to practise medicine in the State of Massachusetts in 2008
- Fellow of the American College of Surgeons (Resident member since 2006), full member since 2011
- SAGES (Society of American Gastrointestinal and Endoscopic Surgeons) member since 2009
- Memeber of the Hellenic Surgical Society
- Member of the Athens Medical Association
- Member of the SRS (Society of Robotic Surgery)
- Member of the Advisory Board of the Official Journal of the Hellenic Society of Surgery

Professional Experience:

- General Surgeon Clinical Fellow, Department of Surgery, Massachusetts General Hospital (MGH)
- General Surgeon Clinical Fellow, Department of Surgery, Shriners Hospital, Boston
- General Surgeon, Attending of the Department of General / Minimally Invasive Surgery, Athens Medical Center, 2010 – 2018

Doctor's Brief Curriculum Vitae

- Scientific Director of the Department of General Surgery, Athens Medical Center, 2014 – 2018

Teaching Experience

- Responsible for teaching and training of medical students and junior General Surgery Residents of Boston University, Brigham and Women Hospital, and MGH, Harvard Medical School, as Chief General Surgery Resident and Clinical Fellow

Special Clinical Interests:

- Laparoscopic and Robotic Repair of Anterior Abdominal Wall Hernias
- Minimally Invasive Surgery for the treatment of GERD – Diaphragmatic Hernia
- Laparoscopic and Robotic Surgery for the treatment of Sports Hernia (Athletic Pubalgia)
- Abdominal Wall Reconstruction (TAR, Component Separation) for complex abdominal wall Hernias
- Minimally Invasive Surgery (Laparoscopic and Robotic Surgery) of the Upper GI / Benign and Malignant conditions.
- Laparoscopic- Robotic Surgery for Benign and Malignant Colorectal conditions
- Acute Surgery (Bowel obstruction, Diverticulitis, Bowel Ischemia, Upper & Lower GI bleeding)

In Summary:

Dr. Chrysoheris is the Director of the 1st Department of General Surgery in HYGEIA Hospital, Athens, Greece.

And director of the Hygeia hospital, Hernia – Center of Excellence .(since 2022)

He is also holds the title of clinical Assistant Professor of Surgery at the Nicosia University Medical School .

He is a graduate of the Boston University General Surgery Residency Program (2008). Following that, he completed a one-year fellowship, (ICU, Burn, Acute Surgery) at the Massachusetts General Hospital, department of Surgery – Harvard Medical School(2009). Upon returning to Greece in 2009 and up until 2011 he served as a clinical fellow in the Department of MIS Surgery in Athens Medical Center, where he got acquainted with and trained in Robotic Surgery.

- Dr.Chrysoheris is actively Certified from the American Board of Surgery (since 2008)
- He has been re-certified in 2019 in 2021 in 2024 and 2025.
- Vice President of the Greek Hernia Association

Doctor's Brief Curriculum Vitae

- Past member of the administrative board of the Greek Association of Endoscopic (MIS) Surgery (EEEX).
- Fellow of the American College of Surgeons (FACS) since 2011
- Member of numerous scientific organizations including SAGES, EHS, EAES, the Greek Surgical Association etc.
- His special clinical interests focus on Minimally Invasive Oncologic Surgery both laparoscopic and robotic and Minimally Invasive Complex Abdominal Wall Reconstruction Surgery.

He has served as a tutor and trainer in numerous National and International Surgical skills workshops (cadaveric courses and live Surgery courses). Also is currently serving as Da Vinci – Robotic Surgery proctor (mainly in advanced Robotic Hernia cases and Robotic colorectal cases)

He is co-author in numerous publications mainly in the topics of minimally invasive hernia surgery and minimally invasive colorectal surgery, and he has been an invited speaker in many national and international meetings .

Contact Details:

210 686 7695

210 686 7696

pchrysoheris@hotmail.com